Prof. S. Subramanian's 60th Birthday Lecture Award - 2025

NMRS invites nominations for the Prof. S. Subramanian's 60th Birthday Lecture Award for the year 2025. The award is given annually to an outstanding scientist working in any area of magnetic resonance. The award has been instituted from an endowment received to honour Prof. S. Subramanian, former Professor of Chemistry at IIT-Madras, from his students and colleagues. It will be given annually to an outstanding scientist working in any area of magnetic resonance and its applications. The award consists of a cash prize of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only), a citation and a certificate which will be presented in a special session of the NMRS symposium. The work done within India by a nominee will be recognized for the award. However, outstanding work, primarily done by the nominee in short visits abroad, could also be included for the consideration of the committee and an integrated view will be taken. The age of the nominee should not exceed 45 years as on 31-12-2025.

Any life-member of NMRS can nominate a scientist who should also be a life-member of NMRS. Self-nomination is also accepted and they should be a member of NMRS. The format for the application is as follows:

1. Latest CV, age proof and the list of publications
2. A one-page write-up of major contributions of the nominee carried out in India in the last five years
3. Copies of five important papers published in the last five years
4. If self-nominated, a list of three references one of which is a life-member of NMRS

The winner will be invited to make a presentation at the next NMRS symposium to be held at IISER, Bhopal during July 2026. The recipient will make his/her own arrangement towards TA/DA for attending the symposium

Note: Previous nominations remain valid for 3 years or until the nominee completes the age of 45, whichever is earlier. However, previous nominees are encouraged to update their CV and publications.

The nominations must reach before 17.00 hrs on 05-04-2026 at: nmrs.nrc@iisc.ac.in and also to the President at: jagan1954@hotmail.com, nrjgj@yahoo.co.in
